NOTICE FOR RAIL MODE CONSUMERS

It is seen that despite several notices, consumers are not submitting details of coal value depositions. This results in unclaimed transactions. For example, Rs.9,99,00,000/- & Rs. 7,55,50,249.00 has been received in CCL Rail Sale Coal Value Deposition Account maintained with State Bank of India on 19/07/2023 & 01/08/2023 respectively but details are yet to be received. Such instances create problem in account of receipt of coal value.

It is notified to all consumers that CCL shall not be able to pass credit against unclaimed transactions. Further, any liability arising out of same shall be passed on to consumers and CCL shall not be responsible for same.

Consumers are encouraged to use payment gateway developed by CCL for deposition of coal value so that any such issues can be avoided. In case of direct deposition, consumers are requested to provide following details.
