“CCL-KE-LAL”

Central Coalfields Limited (CCL) under its CSR initiative have been providing free educational support along with free boarding and lodging facility to 25 meritorious students every year under the scheme namely “CCL KE LAL” for grooming them for selection in competitive examination of engineering like IIT, NITs, etc.

100 % of the students selected for “CCL Ke Lal” have been selected in premium engineering colleges across India in the past three (3) years (since inception).

CCL intends to scale up the scheme by providing financial and educational support to larger universe of poor but meritorious students belonging to rural background in project affected area of CCL to give them an equal opportunity to compete with intelligent students of urban background.

Selection of 25 boy students will be done under this scheme for the batch 2016-18. The selection of the students will be from the following two groups:

Group – I

15 boy students from PAPs/land outstees/ villagers within command areas of CCL/Children of Wage Board employees of CCL. However number of employee’s children will not exceed 6.

Group – II

10 boy students from open group from state of Jharkhand i.e. from group other than group I as mentioned above.

Eligibility Criteria:

For applying in the above scheme, following is to be fulfilled by candidates:

- 9 CGPA in class X Board Examination 2016 of CBSE or 85% marks in Jharkhand State Board of Examination 2016 or ICSE Board 2016.

Selection Methodology:

- 1) A merit list will be prepared based on percentile marks obtained by students in STD X (CBSE/ ICSE/ Jharkhand State Board of Examination.).
- 2) Final list of selected students will be prepared accordingly from the merit list.
- 3) The Gross Annual Income of the parents/ guardians of the students should not be more than Rs. 6 lakhs (Rupees Six Lakhs).
- 4) If percentile of two or more students are the same, the date of birth will be considered. Younger students will be given precedence/ preference over the older ones.
